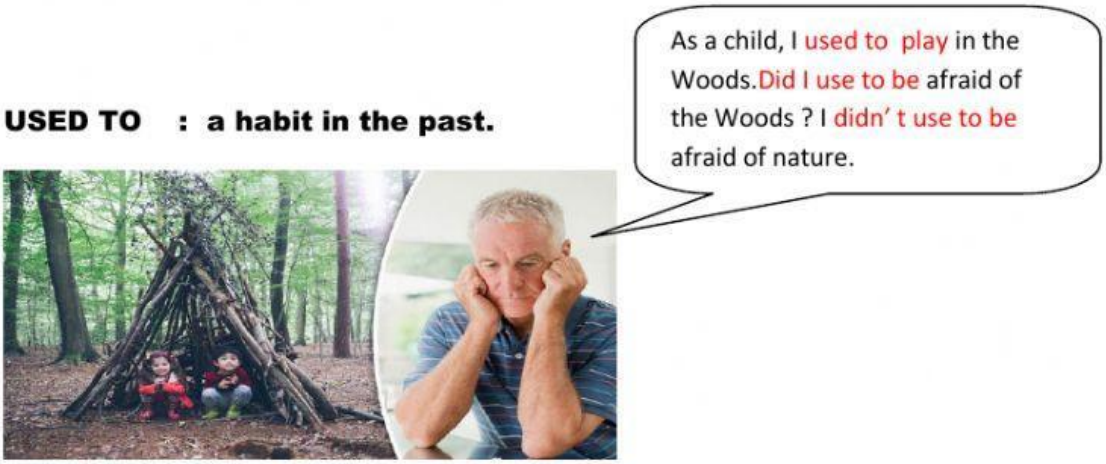
USED TO : a habit in the past.



BE USED TO + NOUN

I am used to the weather in my hometown but I am not used to the mosquitoes.

John is hard-working but he is moody. I am not really used to his bad temperament.

Mr Wilkingson has lived alone for a long time and he has always been used to his solitude . He says it isn' t loneliness.

USED TO + ING (a habit in the present)

I am used to getting up early.

We are not used to being up till late.

GET USED TO + ING (when a habit has to be developed)

I hate vegetables but I have to get used to eating them.

Click on the right option.

1) It' s hard to believe that Anna _____a tomboy as a girl because now, in her early thirties , she is every inch a lady.

   a) is used to being b) used to be

2) Tom has moved to Alaska. He still has _____ to the cold wealther. It may take him some time .

   a) to get used b) got used

3) As an old person, Mrs Anderson is not _____with children. She finds them restless and noisy.

   a) used to interacting b) used to interact

4) How long do you think it will take me _____ in China , whose customs are so different from ours in the West ?

   a) to be used to living b) to get used to living.

5) In Argentina we are not _____eggs for breakfast.

a) used to have b) used to having.

6) Did you _____ go fishing when you were Young ?

a) used to b) use to

7) In the past, children _____in big families. The average family had 5 or 6 children.

a) used to grow up b) used to growing up

8) I think nobody will ever _____in the summer.

a) be use to mosquitoes b) get used to mosquitoes

9) In the present we spend a lot of time driving cars. In the past most people _____walk to work and they burnt calories more easily.

a) used to b) are used to

10) What did you _____on your summer holidays when you were a child ?

a) use to doing b) use to do