there is a new teacher at our school named miss smith and she teaches spanish Everyday, george and i help her with her books. Next saturday, our class will go on tour with her to the grantley adams international airport. Many tourists who travel here in november come from countries such as cuba. These tourists will stay at hotels in holetown, st james.

During christmas next year, I want to visit the places that I read about in the book 'around the world'. The pictures in that book, drawn by victor d headley from christ church, fill my dreams every night.
