E Complete the dialogue with the correct information from the passage.

Located near China, Vietnam is geographically elongated and narrow. The country is officially known as Socialist Republic of Vietnam. The Vietnamese can speak a few languages such as English, French, Chinese and Khmer. They could speak these languages because Vietnam was once conquered and occupied by China, France and other countries. However, their official language is Vietnamese. The Prime Minister of Vietnam is Mr Nguyen Xuan Phuc. The currency they use is called dong. Their religion is Buddhism. Lotus, a symbol of divine beauty, is the national flower of this country. Vietnamese greet each other by clasping their hands and bowing slightly.

Kamil : Last night, I surfed the Internet in search of information about the country of Vietnam. I discovered a lot of interesting things about the country.

Steve : Oh, Vietnam. The country that is geographically (1) _____.

Kamil : I see you did some research too. The people of Vietnam are called (2) _____.

Steve : The official name of the country is actually (3) _____ _____.

Kamil : I'm amazed with their ability to speak a few foreign languages. They can speak English, French and Chinese.

Steve : That's because the country was once occupied by (4) _____ _____.

Kamil : What's the name of the currency they are using?

Steve : It's called (5) _____.

Kamil : Their national flower is lotus which is a symbol of divine beauty.