

Project 3, unit 6 KIDS

Do you remember what happened in the last episode of kids? (Book p. 62) Click on the correct boxes.

Sonia, Lewis, Trish were at the sports centre / at school.

Trish told about her date with Pete Mancini / Dickens.

On the date Pete saved a girl / cat from the water.

Pete hit his head and woke up. / disappeared in the water.

Lewis thinks that Pete is a good guy / dead .

What comes next? Listen to the kids' dialogue. Do not open your book yet, please. Try to decide which is true?

a) Martin is moving to Canada, because his parents got divorced. / his father got a job there.

b) They are moving before the summer / in summer or after the summer.

c) Lewis is talking about Pete and he feels sorry for him. / he really hates him.

d) Pete is a good footballer has got a big head, because he hit it on the bridge and now it's swollen.

e) Lewis doesn't really want to go to the disco because he doesn't feel like it. He feels sorry for Pete.

he doesn't want to be with Trish.

Now you can open your book. (p. 74) There were some new expressions in the dialogue. Listen to the kids again and try to match the meanings to the expressions. Hallgasd meg még egyszer a párbeszédet, próbáld eldönteni, hogy mi lehet a kifejezések jelentése!

Sounds good.

Hallottátok a hírt, hogy...?

Have you heard the news about?

Nem igazán érdekel / izgat.

It's a pity about Pete.

Kár Péterért. Sajnálom Pétert.

He's a bit of a bighead.

Nincs kedvem hozzá.

I don't think I'll bother.

Mi a francról / csudáról beszélsz?

I just don't feel like it.

Kicsit nagyképű / beképzelt.

What on earth are you talking about?

Jól hangzik.

Answer the following 2 questions:

1. Why doesn't Lewis want to go to the disco?
2. What do you think the others tell him?

Listen to the second part of the dialogue. Check your ideas (your answers to the previous questions). Let's see... do you understand when do we use these expressions? Try to find the good answer.

Sonia and Trish like swimming.	Me don't. / Oh, I don't.
Pete's going to live in Canada.	That sounds good. / That tastes good.
We'll need tickets for the disco.	Really? / Wow!
Have you heard the news about Lewis?	Yes, I do. / What on earth are you talking about?
The disco's going to start at 9 o'clock.	Oh, I see. / No.
Pete's good at football.	Me, too. / I just don't feel like it.
I think he's a bit of a big head.	Yes, that's true. / Wow!
Trish wants to dance with Lewis.	I don't think I'll bother. / I don't like dancing.
Who on earth is Pete Mancini?	I'll tell you about it later. / He's not on the earth, he's virtual.
Pete Mancini is a character in Virtual Soap.	Soup? / Oh, I see. I didn't know that.

If you want, you can also watch the film, it's the dialogue. The names of characters have changed and the characters themselves, too. Lewis went to the hairdresser's 😊.

While you are watching it, find these expressions in English in the text. You can also open your book to find them

Elköltöztök?

Mikor indultok?

körülbelül egy órával ezelőtt

időnként, néha

Jó volt az úzás?

És képzel csak!

Elmegyünk?

Nem nagyon izgat. (Nem érdekel.)

Nincs kedvem hozzá.

Később elmesélem / mesélek róla.

Put the dialogue in the correct order.

No, I don't think I'll bother.

A:

I just don't feel like it.

B:

Shall we go to the disco?

A:

Why not?
