OUR BIG ADVENTURE

(Past Simple, Past Progressive or Past Perfect)

John: Hi, Tom.

Tom: Hi, John. How are you?

John: Great. Ann (tell) me that you (be) in Mexico . When you (come) back?

Tom: Last night.

John: How (be) it? you (have) a nice time?

Tom: Well, it (be) great. We (decide) to spend three months traveling. Our first destination (be) Mexico.

John: Wow. Where you (stay)?

Tom: We (want) to look around a bit so we (go) exploring . While we (look for) a place to stay, we (find) a small hotel on the coast.

John: So it (be) your first destination! Where you (go) next?

Tom: After we (have) a long conversation, we (decide) to try something new. So we (get) on a cruise.

John: Wow. It must have been expensive! How much it (cost)? you (borrow) money from someone?

Tom: No, my wife (win) a lottery. A month ago, we (go) shopping. While I (look for) some wine, she (buy) a lottery ticket from the lottery stand.

John: You must be joking!

Tom: No, really. When we (hear) that she (win) it, we (think) it (be) a prank. But we've had some serious problems because of it.

John: Really? What kind of problems?

Tom: When we (get) home form the cruise, we (find) out that somebody (break) into our house. Yes, someone (find) out about our winning and (try) to rob us.

John: it (take) anything valuable?

Tom: No, while the burglar (try) to enter, he (activate) the alarm and the police (arrive) quickly.

John: Well, you (have) an interesting holiday.
