It's Review Time!

A Circle the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. It's a beautiful day, isn't / is it?
2. Didn't / Aren't you order coffee?
3. You've / You haven't heard from Raoul recently, haven't you?
4. That was a great movie, wasn't that / it?
5. Nick hasn't left San Francisco yet, did / has he?
6. Lara can't move out of her apartment yet, can Lara / she?
7. Shouldn't / Should not we leave soon? It's getting late.

B Complete the conversation with negative yes/no questions and tag questions. Use the correct verbs and short answers.

A: You haven't lived in Vancouver for very long, _____ 1. you?

B: _____ 2. . Only for a month. Why are you asking?

A: You're wearing so many clothes. _____ 3. you hot?

B: _____ 4. . I think it's freezing today.

A: Oh, come on. You're not really that cold, _____ 5. you?

B: I'm originally from Rio de Janeiro. This is my first experience with cold weather. I'll get used to it someday, _____ 6. I?

A: _____ 7. . It won't take long, and winter here isn't very bad.

C Find and correct five mistakes. Write the wrong word in the first box. Write the right word in the second box. There is one example.

A: Ken hasn't come back from Korea yet, has Ken? [Ken] [he]

B: No, he has. He got back last week. Didn't he call you when he got back? [ ] [ ]

A: No, he didn't. He's probably busy. There are a lot of things to do when you move, isn't there? [ ] [ ]

B: Definitely. And I guess his family wanted to spend a lot of time with him, won't they? [ ] [ ]

A: I'm sure they will. You know, I think I'll just call him. You have his phone number, have you? [ ] [ ]

B: Yes, I do. Could you wait while I get it from my phone? You're not in a hurry, aren't you? [ ] [ ]

LIVEWORKSHEETS