Grade 5
Fall Exam 2020

Section A:
The Writing Process

Instructions: Match each step of the Writing Process to the correct description:

Prewriting:	Sharing final writing with others.
Drafting:	Thinking about a topic, brainstorming, and planning.
Revising:	Quickly putting thoughts on paper.
Editing:	Reworking the organization and details.
Evaluating:	Reflecting and assessing what has been written.
Publishing:	Reviewing and correcting spelling, grammar, capitalization and punctuation.

Instructions: Answer the following Questions:

1. What is a Narrative?

2. List two (2) methods you can use when writing a Hook Sentences.

3. Give an example of an Onomatopoeia Word:

Section B:
Purpose For Writing

Instructions: Read the descriptions of each item and determine the author's purpose (to entertain, persuade, or inform). Check the box next to the correct answer.

A) A pamphlet urging people not to eat animals or use products made from animals or animal suffering because the author thinks that is cruel and unnecessary.

_____ to entertain _____ to persuade _____ to inform

B) A book of over 1,000 knock-knock jokes.

_____ to entertain _____ to persuade _____ to inform

C) A cook book containing recipes for making cakes, cookies, and other desserts.

_____ to entertain _____ to persuade _____ to inform

D) In my personal opinion, Blue is the best color in the world.

_____ to entertain _____ to persuade _____ to inform

E) According to the Nassau Guardian, todays weather will be 65° and partly cloudy.

_____ to entertain _____ to persuade _____ to inform