B Read the journal again. Where does Carrie live first? Where does she live next? Remember, as you read a story, think about the order in which things happen.

Carrie's Journal

April 9
Today, my dad told me that we're moving to Florida. He said it's hot and sunny in Florida. My mom is from Florida, and she doesn't like the snow and ice. And Grandma and Grandpa live in Florida.

May 28
Today, I finished packing my toys, my books, and my clothes. Tomorrow, we are moving. I'm going to miss the snow. I can't throw snowballs in Florida.

March 12
Today, it's cold and snowy. This morning, Sandy and I went ice skating on the lake. It was fun. After lunch, we went outside to make a snowman.

Then Billy came along. He threw a snowball at Sandy. So I threw a snowball at Billy. The three of us threw snowballs at each other. I love the snow.

Think
What happens first? Carrie goes ice skating. Then Carrie makes a snowman.

June 3
This morning, I finished unpacking all my clothes and toys. Then Mom said, "Let's go to the beach. We can go swimming, and Dad can go fishing." So we put on our bathing suits and went to the beach. The water was warm. We swam for a long time. I couldn't swim in the ocean in Vermont. Now I can swim in the ocean every day. I danced with joy on the warm sand.

Think What is the order of events in this entry?
