OPERA IDIOMAS

Name

Teacher

Date

1. Used when comparing two different or opposite facts or ideas:
E.g. Gary, _____, used to be very thin.

on the other hand

2. Used when you are adding something, especially something surprising, to emphasize what you have just said:
E.g. _____, it's cheaper to fly than it is to drive.

either

3. To decide which one of a number of things, possibilities, people etc. that you want, because it is the best or most appropriate:
E.g. The city _____ a new mayor on Tuesday.

clever

4. Used to introduce a statement that makes another statement seem surprising:
E.g. _____ the car's old, it still runs well.

although

5. Able to use your intelligence to do something, especially in a slightly dishonest way:
E.g. The main character in the story is a _____, beautiful girl.

in fact

6. Used to begin a list of two or more possibilities, separated by "or":
E.g. You can choose _____ French fries, baked, potato, or mashed potatoes.

height

7. A talk, especially a formal one about a particular subject, given to a group of people:
E.g. I have to write my _____ for tomorrow.

chose

8. How tall someone is:
E.g. When I'm wearing heels, I'm the same _____ as he is.

reason

9. The cause or fact that explains why something has happened or happens, or why someone has done something:
E.g. I told her my _____ for wanting to find a new job.

speech