Roll a Question: Commas

Read the following sentence.

There are three books, but we can only choose one.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

A. There are three, books, but, we can only choose one.
B. There are three books but we can only choose one.
C. There are three books, but, we can only choose one.
D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

He is wearing a blue shirt jeans and sandals.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

A. He is wearing a blue, shirt, jeans, and sandals.
B. He is wearing a blue shirt, jeans, and sandals.
C. He, is wearing, a blue shirt, jeans, and sandals.
D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

Finally we can help the school by cleaning up litter.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

A. Finally, we can help the school by cleaning up litter.
B. Finally, we can help the school, by cleaning up litter.
C. Finally, we can help, the school, by cleaning up litter.
D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

My friend, named Lisa works with horses in Virginia.

How is this sentence correctly written?

A. My friend named Lisa, works with horses in, Virginia.
B. My friend, named Lisa, works with horses in Virginia.
C. My friend named Lisa works with horses in Virginia.
D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

The following day we went to the museum.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

A. The following day, we went to the museum.
B. The following day we, went to the museum.
C. The following day, we, went to the museum.
D. As it is

Read the following sentence.

She has straight hair yet her brother's is curly.

How is this sentence correctly punctuated?

A. She has straight hair yet, her brother's is curly.
B. She has, straight hair yet, her brother's is curly.
C. She has straight hair, yet her brother's is curly.
D. As it is