People all over the world play with building bricks. They are a favorite toy for boys and girls, _____ and old. But do you know, you can _____ with building bricks? That's right! There's a _____ called a master builder. Cool, right? Yes, but it's not easy. There are only about 40 master builders in the whole world. And they work hard! It can take months to build a big model. Master builders _____ a lot of bricks, too. One model of a German soccer stadium has 1.3 million bricks!

Paul Chrzan is a master builder. Paul says, "Just build, build, build!" He thinks it's good to build different things—not just what's on the box. "Don't build the house and the spaceship," Paul says. "Build your family pet!"
