INSTRUCTIONS: Write in the correct phrasal verbs.

1. There used to be lots of shops on the market place but many of them because they could not compete with the new shopping centre and online shopping trends.

2. The department store manager took the derision to that brand because it just wasn't selling well enough. At least that way we could recuperate some of the money we spent on stock.

3. We tried to the saleswoman on price but she wouldn't budge. But even though we paid full price, at the end of the day we are satisfied.

4. My daughter at least 15 pairs of shoes before she decided which pair she wanted to buy.

5. She went to the corner shop to buy some bread but they had . In the end she had to take the car and drive to the supermarket on the outskirts.

6. "Excuse me. I'm a USB cable for this device. Do you have any in stock?'

7. "May I help you, sir?"
   'No thank you. I am just ,

8. They decided to with bread and milk because all the shops would be closed for the holidays.

9. The customers had all the bread and milk because of the approaching holidays.

10. We paid nearly a thousand pounds for this PC but it stopped working after only two days and after it was repaired it continued to give us problems. I think we were .

11. When they launched the latest games console, the customers all night to buy them.

12. We decided to on a really good TV and bought the most expensive in the shop.

13. 13. She looked at several different coffeemakers but in the end the cheapest

14. We spent the day for a new sofa but in the end decided to get one from the furniture store at the end of our street.

15. He family-run corner shop at the end of the road has been there for at least SO years. It's a shame that large chain of grocery stores is going to them . It was nice to go shopping in a place with a little individual character.

16. "How much did that new car you ?'

17. They were not happy with the microwave oven that they bought and decided to it to the shop and ask for a refund.

18. She asked for a refund but they wouldn't her the money without a receipt.

LIVEWORKSHEETS