Questions 3-4

The teenagers below are all looking for a group on a social networking site to join.
Below are descriptions of four groups for young people.
Decide which group would be the most suitable for the following teenagers.
For questions 3-4, mark the correct letter (A-D) on your answer sheet.

3. Alice likes watching TV. She likes reading news about new movies from English-speaking countries and talking with her friends about the movies she's watched.

4. Antonio spends at least three hours every day online. He likes writing blogs and playing role-playing games. He also likes to learn about new games that are coming out soon.

Teen blogs

A

Fifteen is the most popular group for teenagers in Asia. It covers various topics that teenagers are interested in like games, movies, music, actors, and singers. This is a place where teens can talk about whatever they like.

B

Movie Chat is an entertainment group full of articles and reviews about movies and dramas in the UK and the USA. It's also updated regularly with information about famous actors. It's one of the biggest social networking sites with more than 1 million members.

C

Gamerz, as its name suggests, is a famous group for gamers around the world. There are many articles reviewing new games written by its members. This is also a place for people to discuss games and ask for advice. It has a large number of members, around 700,000 people.

D

Pop-up Teenz is well-known for its interesting articles and information, with colorful photographs, about Asian entertainment. Most of its articles are interviews with famous stars. Sometimes it gives away posters of famous singers or actors for free.
