Write S for simple sentences and C for compound sentences.

_____ 1. The tiny nation of Liechtenstein lies in central Europe and has no seacoast.

_____ 2. At many universities, a major in history requires 36 credits of coursework, but a minor requires only 18 credits.

_____ 3. In the words string, French, and branch, all of the letters but one are consonants.

_____ 4. According to several Internet sources, the five most common surnames in England are Smith, Jones, Williams, Taylor, and Brown.

_____ 5. Machu Picchu is a very popular destination, so Peru receives millions of tourists each year.

_____ 6. The word present has two pronunciations, but the meanings are very different.

_____ 7. Giraffes can eat up to 100 pounds of leaves per day, so they spend most of their day eating.

_____ 8. Singapore has been an independent country for more than five decades, but it was part of Malaysia.

LIVEWORKSHEETS