

HERE COMES THE GARBAGE BARGE

BY JONAH WINTER

How does the story end?
These children want to know.

Let's complete the children's questions.

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: No, the Garbage Barge isn't welcomed anywhere.

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: Captain Duffy tugs the garbage around New York for the whole summer.

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: The Captain feels exhausted!

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: Yes, Mr Stroffolino calls him again.

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: Yes, he does. He has good news at last!

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: He can take the garbage to Brooklyn.

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: He takes it there because they have an "incinerator" to burn it all.

It burns for hours, and when it is done, it only weighs 430 tons.

Children: _____ ?

Teacher: They bury it in a landfill in Islip.

The Break of Dawn and Captain Duffy are free to go back to New Orleans at last!
