Grammar

1 Complete the sentences with be going to and the correct form of these verbs.

buy	not drive	take	meet
play	watch	not write

1 We _____ a movie on TV this evening.
2 Matt and Raul _____ tennis.
3 I _____ friends for dinner.
4 They _____ here because there's a problem with their car.
5 _____ you _____ a vacation this year?
6 Rachel _____ the tickets online before we leave.
7 The author _____ another book ever again.

2 Make five sentences with be going to and the infinitive of purpose.

I'm going to	the theater a concert an art gallery a café the mall	to have to see to listen to to look at to buy	a drink. a musical. music. clothes. paintings.

Vocabulary

4 Match these types of movies with the comments (1–6).

animated ___	documentary ___	comedy ___
horror ___	science fiction ___	action ___

1 It's a story in space with aliens.
2 It was very funny, and I laughed for hours afterward.
3 It's all about polar bears and how they live.
4 I couldn't watch the movie. It was very scary!
5 There are fast cars, and the hero always wins.
6 In the past, they drew all the pictures on paper. Nowadays, they make them with computers.

5 Cross out one incorrect word in each group.

1 types of movies: animated thriller fantasy news horror
2 landscapes: rocks mountains fruit sea sky
3 plants: grass birds trees flowers leaves
4 animals: kangaroos turtles birds lakes frogs

6 >> MB Work in pairs. Look at the photos and answer these questions.

1 What type of TV shows are they?
2 What words describe these types of shows?
3 When you watch them, how do you feel?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Real life

8 Number the lines of the conversation in the correct order (1–8).

1 Would you like to see a movie?
___ Sorry, but I'm working late.
___ What time does it start?
___ OK. I'd love to go at nine.
___ There's another showing at nine.
___ Great. Let's meet outside the theater at quarter to nine.
___ At six.
8 Right. See you there. Bye.

LIVEWORKSHEETS