Name: _____ Surname: _____

COMPUTERS AND THE INTERNET

Choose the correct word.

1. _____ means looking at a variety of things casually, especially while browsing the Internet or television channels.
2. _____ is the process of transferring data files or programs from a computer or device to a server – usually on the World Wide Web.
3. _____ is a general-purpose programming language developed by Sun® Microsystems.
4. _____ is the working space used by the computer to hold the program that is currently running, along with the data it needs, and to run programs and process data.
5. _____ is a group of interconnected computers, including the hardware and software used to connect them.
6. _____ is an online video blog.
7. _____ is the most popular search engine on the Internet.
8. _____ is an optical storage medium which has greater capacity and bandwidth than a CD.
9. _____ is the worldwide information highway, comprised of thousands of interconnected computer networks, that reaches millions of people in countries around the globe.
10. _____ is a program that infects a computer by attaching itself to another program which then spreads when that program is run.
11. _____ is the memory that can be read but not changed.
12. _____ is the process of transferring data or programs from a server or host computer to one's own computer or device.

Match the Internet terms with their definitions.

1. Internet	a) a computer network that is private to a school, university, etc. but is connected to and uses the same software as the Internet.
2. to surf the Net	b) to use the Internet.
3. Google	c) a very popular Internet search engine – a website which helps you to search for information on the Internet.
4. browser	d) to do a fast Internet search.
5. Intranet	e) a system for finding information on the Internet, in which documents are connected to other documents using hypertext links.
6. WWW	f) an international computer network connecting other networks and computers from companies, universities, etc.
7. to google	g) a computer program that makes it easy to access the Internet and the World Wide Web.