In Great Britain and USA...

They listen to the Queen's speech.

They eat yule log, trifle and Christmas pudding.

They play board games on Christmas day.

They leave mince pies, sherry and carrots for Santa and the reindeers.

Carol singers sing in public places in Great Britain and USA.

They pull Christmas crackers.

They go to church on Christmas morning.

They hang up mistletoe on the doors and kiss as they pass under.

They hang up Christmas stockings.

In Andorra,

Spain, France

or Portugal...

We set up a Nativity Scene.

We eat 12 grapes on New Year's Eve.

We hit a log and it gives us presents (El Tió)

We eat polvorons (a type of shortbread).

We eat torrons (nougat).

We eat tortell de Reis (roscón de Reyes). It's a round cake.

The Three Wise Men leave us presents on the night of January 5.

In Portugal we eat cod on Christmas Eve.

In France we eat yule log (bûche de Noël).

We all...

We all send out Christmas cards.

We all decorate the Christmas tree with tinsel and baubles.

We all write a letter to Santa Claus.

We all spend family time at Christmas.

We all open presents on Christmas morning.

We all open the Advent calendar during the month of December.

In Great Britain and USA...

Carol singers sing in public places in Great Britain and USA.

They leave mince pies, sherry and carrots for Santa and the reindeers.

They go to church on Christmas morning.

They pull Christmas crackers.

They eat yule log, trifle and Christmas pudding.

They listen to the Queen's speech.

They hang up Christmas stockings.

They hang up mistletoe on the doors and kiss as they pass under.

They play board games on Christmas day.

In Andorra, Spain, France or Portugal...

We eat polvorons (a type of shortbread).

The Three Wise Men leave us presents on the night of January 5.

We eat torrons (nougat).

We eat tortell de Reis (roscón de Reyes). It's a round cake.

We eat 12 grapes on New Year's Eve.

In Portugal we eat cod on Christmas Eve.

We set up a Nativity Scene.

We hit a log and it gives us presents (El Tió)

In France we eat yule log (bûche de Noël).

We all...

We all Christmas cards.

We all the Christmas tree with tinsel and baubles.

We all a letter to Santa Claus.

We all family time at Christmas.

We all the Advent calendar during the month of December.

We all presents on Christmas morning.