I. Complete the following sentences using the vocabulary in exercise 2 and 6

1. That advertisement is_____ about the true cost of the holiday. The holidaymakers are mistaken about how much they have to spend.
2. Some people_____ their true feelings on social media. They pretend to be happy and satisfied all the time.
3. Gina left a_____ comment on her close friend's social media post, and it started an argument.
4. I know that people are lying to me. I post some of my photographs which have been photoshopped and I get all_____ comments.
5. Newspapers, whether in paper or online, are good medium to widely_____ news.
6. During the TV panel discussion, some of the professors gave_____ information about their universities.
7. You should not believe everything you read in the tabloids. The news is not serious and maybe_____.
8. When Wendy expressed her wish to have a trip around the world on her social page, she received so many_____ remarks that she was not confident enough to do it.

II. Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs below.

disguise exaggerate lie influence pass photoshop

You can't say that adverts [1]_____ about products to consumers, but I think it's true to say they [2]_____ what products can do. Advertisers try to [3]_____ our emotions with images of attractive people and places. Furthermore, they have been known to [4]_____ images so that products look better than they really are. Often, food and drinks manufacturers [5]_____ off products which have too much sugar as 'energy food' and [6]_____ the fact that some products contain ingredients that are not good for us.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

III. Complete the adjectives below with the descriptions.

1. Someone who is honest and says what they think. S _ r _ i _ _ t
2. Someone who does not support or help either side in a disagreement. N _ u _ _ _ _
3. Someone who can be relied upon to do the right thing and to be honest. _ _ _ _ t _ _ r _ _ y

LIVEWORKSHEETS