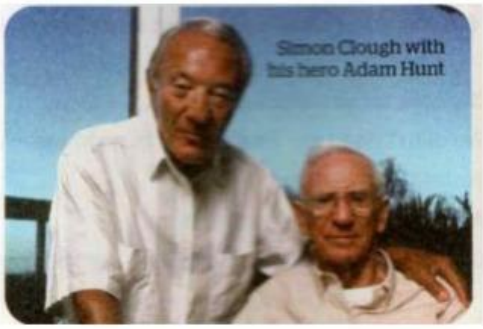
Reading (Гр 3)

How I saved my neighbour's life



It started as a day like any other. As usual, I arrived at work at half past eight and picked up the boxes I needed to deliver. At about half past twelve, I had made my last delivery of the morning, and I was quite close to my house, so I decided to go home for lunch and then go back to work. As I turned into my street, I heard an alarm. I stopped and as soon as I got out of my van, I realised that my neighbour's house was on fire. I managed to kick the door down and get in. When I got in, I heard someone coughing in the kitchen. I ran inside and found Mr Clough on the floor. He was having trouble breathing. I took him outside and then went back in and put out the fire. Fortunately, it was only a small chip pan fire. I know it was dangerous, especially going back in to put out the fire, but I knew what to do so I did it. I remembered seeing a fire safety programme where they put a pan
