1.Professions and their sectors tourist guide   dentist   miner   teacher   factory worker   vet   lawyer fisherman   baker   shop assistant   carpenter   farmer   cleaner hairdresser   chef   toy-maker   agricultural worker   bus- driver nurse   metal-worker   hotel receptionist   shoe-maker   fireman   forestry worker

Primary sector	Secondary sector	Tertiary sector

✓The population / economy is divided into 3 / 4 sectors: _____, _____ and _____ sectors.

✓ Raw materials are extracted from factories / nature. This is the primary / tertiary sector.

✓ Manufactured products are processed in shops / industries primary / secondary sector.

✓ Jobs that provide a service / craftwork make up the tertiary / secondary sector.

2. Put the sentences in order

a) The milk is collected and taken to the factory in big tanks.

b) The consumer buys the milk in the shop to take home and have breakfast the next day.

c) The bottles or cartons are transported in big lorries to the shops or supermarkets.

d) The farmer milks the cows in the farm.

e)The milk is processed and bottled or put in cartons and packed in boxes.

First, _____

Then, _____

Later, _____

Next, _____ and Finally, _____.

3. Transports and their characteristics

On land/ in the air/ on the water

Heavy /light   Fast /slow

Expensive / cheap to run

Easy / difficult to park

Noisy /quiet   Public / private

Friendly / unfriendly with the environment

Comfortable / uncomfortable

It´s a _____

It goes _____

It is _____

_____

_____

_____

It´s a _____

It goes _____

It is _____

_____

_____

_____

4. Road signs. There are 3 types of road signs instructions	warnings	information

blue background   red border   white background   tell you to be careful, be alert circle shape   offer you a service   square o rentangle shape

red border   tell you what to do/ not to do   triangle shape   white background

Road signs. Match and place in the correct box.

No entry

Slippery road

You must not walk here

Maximum speed limit

You must turn left

Bicycles only

Children crossing

Motorway

You can cross here

No bicycles

instrucions	warnings	information