

Present Perfect

FORM

Affirmative	Subject + _____ + e.g: (I /buy/ new bike)
Negative	Subject + _____ + e.g: (She / be / Disneyland)
Questions	_____ + Subject + ? e.g: (you / see / your aunt?)

USE

We use the Present Perfect to talk about:

- Something that happened in your life, without saying _____ it happened.
e.g: "We've been to France."
- _____ events which have a result in the _____.
e.g "She has broken her nose."
- Actions which started in the _____ but continue in the present.
e.g "I have lived in Tapiales since I was born." (I still live there)
- We use _____ to talk about something that happened very recently.

- We use _____ to talk about something that happened earlier than expected.
- We use _____ in negative sentences and questions, to ask if something we expect has happened.
- We use _____ and _____ with Present Perfect to describe actions that started in the past and continue in the present.

_____ a long time / two days / five years

_____ Christmas / my birthday / 1998 / last year