Cambridge Primary Science 5

Check your progress Unit 4

Time allowance: 25 minutes

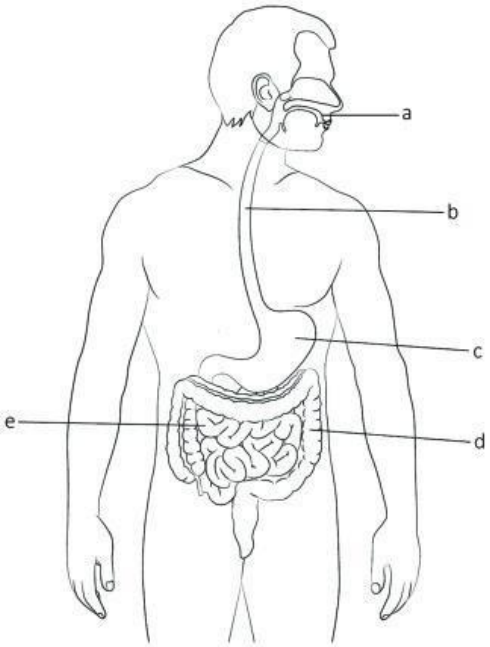
Name: .....

Class: .....

Mark: ..... /20 =

END OF UNIT 4 TEST

1 Label the parts numbered a–e of the human digestive system.



a _____

b _____

c _____

d _____

e _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 Write the following processes that happen in the digestive system in the correct order, from a to f.

Food swallowed and pushed down the oesophagus.

Food broken into very small particles.

Food chewed into small pieces.

Undigested food removed.

Food mixed with digestive juices.

Food particles absorbed into the blood.

a _____

b _____

c _____

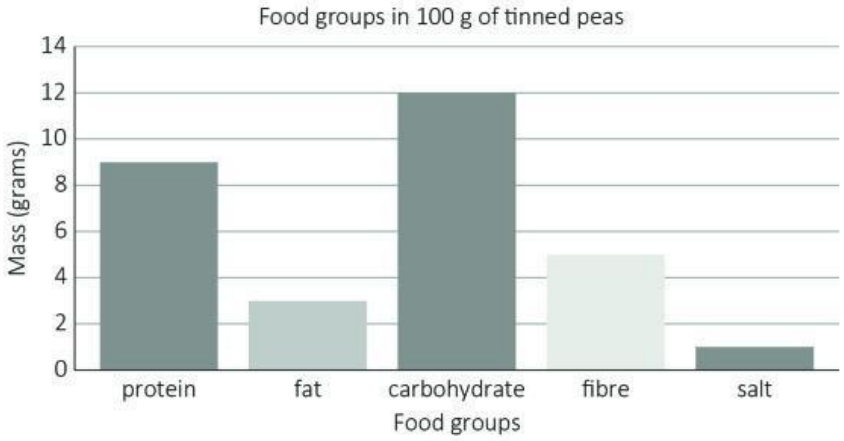
d _____

e _____

f _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3 Sofia drew a graph to show the quantity of the different food groups in 100 g of tinned peas.



a Which food group do the peas contain most of?

_____

b Why do we need the food group you named in question a?

_____

c Which food group do the peas contain least of?

_____

d How much protein do the peas contain?

_____

e Why do we need protein?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

f What is in the peas that we need for a healthy digestive system?

_____

g How much salt is in the tinned peas?

_____

h Name a mineral found in salt.

_____

i The total quantity of the different food groups in Sofia's graph does not add up to 100 g. What other substance do you think makes up the rest of the 100 g of peas?

_____

THE END

LIVEWORKSHEETS