

Hi, my name is Tim. Last Saturday I got up at quarter to seven and had breakfast with my family. My mum and dad had orange juice, coffee and biscuits for breakfast. I didn't have coffee; I drank hot chocolate. Then, I played a game online with my friends. I didn't win but I had fun. At twelve o'clock I had lunch and then I had online classes. After that, I watched YouTube videos and read a comic. Finally, I had sausages and chips for dinner and went to bed early.
