

Grammar Review

Read the following statements. Choose Present if the sentence expresses regret in the present. Choose Past if the sentence expresses regret in the past. Choose Mixed if the sentence expresses a present situation with a past cause.

- | | | | |
|---|---------|------|-------|
| 1.If only I had enough money, I would buy that videogame. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 2. If only I hadn't broken Mom's favorite vase, she wouldn't be angry with me now. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 3. If he hadn't climbed that tree, he wouldn't have fallen down and broken his leg. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 4. If only we had gone to bed earlier last night, we wouldn't be so tired. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 5. If only she had saved enough money, she could have bought that beautiful dress. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 6. If only it wasn't raining, we could play soccer in the park. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 7.If only my dog hadn't eaten my brother's shoes, my dad would not be angry with him now. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 8. If only I didn't have so much homework, I could finish reading my book. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 9.If only someone hadn't left the door open, my cat wouldn't have gone out of the house. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 10.If only Mom arrived earlier from work, we could watch a movie. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |
| 11. If only I hadn't broken the rules, I wouldn't have been grounded the whole weekend. | PRESENT | PAST | MIXED |

12. If only I had paid attention to the teacher, I would understand the exercise.

PRESENT PAST MIXED