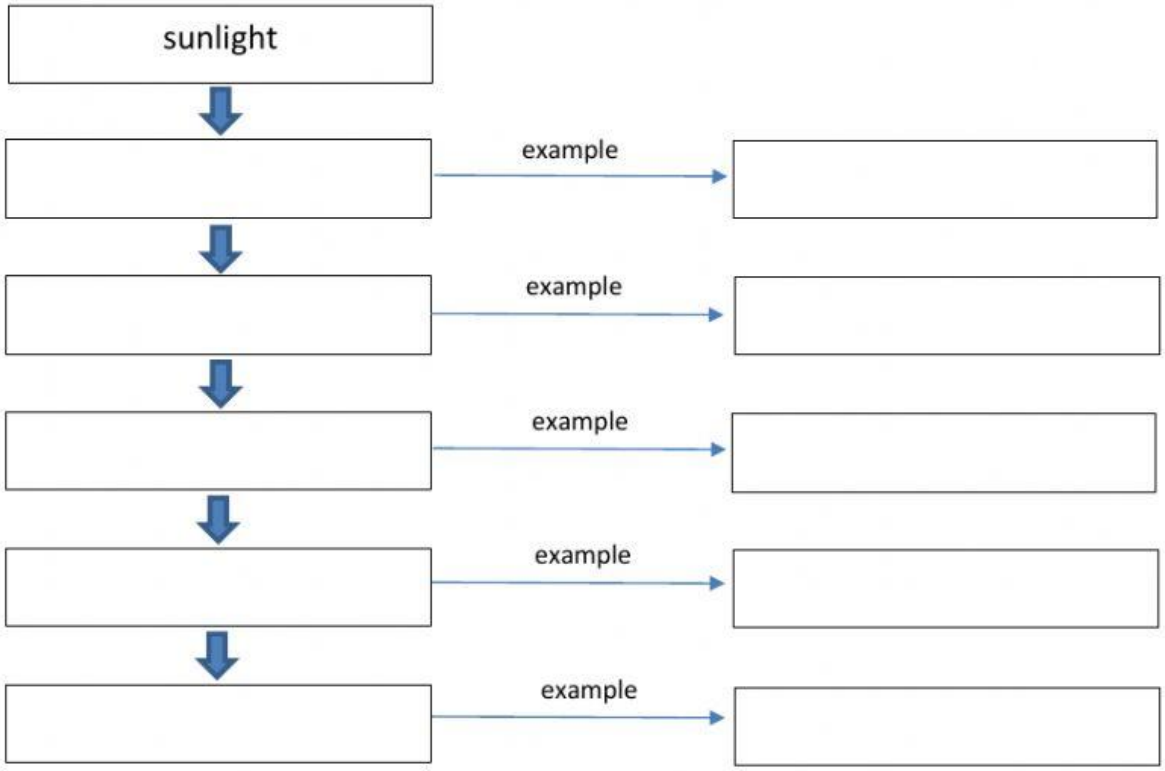
Unit 3: Our planet's biosphere Worksheet

1. Complete the graphic organiser.

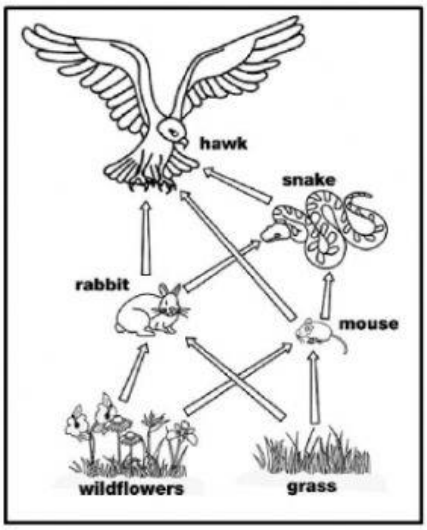
decomposers	tertiary consumers	foxes	fungi
secondary consumers	producers	primary consumers
grasses	rabbits	hawks



2. Write the correct word for each definition.

- This word describes a species that no longer exists. _____
- These organisms live on the remains of other living organisms. _____
- This occurs when forests are cut down. _____
- These living things make their own food. _____
- This word describes animals that are at risk of extintion. _____
- This word describes animals that feed on dead animals. _____

3. Use the food web picture to answer the questions.



Tick the PRODUCERS of the food web.

hawk	wildflowers	snake	rabbit	grass	mouse

Tick the CONSUMERS of the food web.

hawk	wildflowers	snake	rabbit	grass	mouse

Which living things does the snake eat? _____

Which living things does the hawk eat? _____

What is eaten by the rabbit? _____

4. Read and sentences and choose the correct option.

All animals are consumers because they cannot produce their own food. TRUE FALSE

A food chain represents how living things reproduce. TRUE FALSE

Animals can be both producers and consumers. TRUE FALSE

A food chain always ends in a predator. TRUE FALSE

Primary consumers feed on producers. TRUE FALSE