Name: _____ Class: Standard IV

School: _____ Date: _____

Science

Landforms

Landform is a natural feature of the earth's surface. Examples of landforms are mountains, valleys, hills. Caves, flatlands, islands and so on.

Define the following landforms.

1. Mountain

2. Valley

3. Hill

Write true if the statement is true and false is the statement is false on landforms.

1. A valley is the land between hills and mountains. _____
2. The highest land in Belize is the hill. _____
3. Landforms are found only in Belize. _____
4. Mountains is a tall natural land on earth higher than a hill. _____
5. Mountains and hills are the same size. _____
6. Hills are usually covered with grass. _____
7. Physical features on earth's surface are called landforms. _____
8. Pomona valley is cold at night time. _____

Write whether the landform below is a hill, mountain or valley.

_____ _____ _____