TEARS OF AUTUMN BY YOSHIKO UCHIDA

I. Click on T if the sentence is True or F if sentence is False.

1. Hana`s uncle want to find for Taro Takeda a fine young woman who is strong and brave enough to cross the blue ocean.
   T F
2. Hana wanted more for herself than her sisters had in their proper, arranged, and loveless marriages.
   T F
3. Hana wanted to keep the smothering strictures of life in her village.
   T F
4. Hana certainly was going to marry a farmer and spend her life working besides him planting.
   T F
5. Hana`s sisters they both two got marriage to a merchant everyone.
   T F

II. Multiple choice. Click on the correct answer.

1. Hana`s sister ventured in front of Hana:
   a. It would be a certainly a different kind of life
   b. It would be a certainly a different kind of travel
   c. It would be a certainly a different kind of experience

2. Hana's mother objected to her going to Tokyo to seek employment as a:
   a. Homemaker
   b. Teacher
   c. Journalist

3. Hana spoke to her uncle. Oji San, perhaps I should go to America to make this lonely man a:
   a. Good wife
   b. Good mate
   c. Good girlfriend

4. "You know" Oji uncle said looking at Hana, it may be a very good life:
   a. In America
   b. In Los Angles
   c. In California

5. Hana hides the letter and photograph in the sleeve of her kimono and took them to the outhouse to:
   a. See in private
   b. Study in private
   c. Throw them away