Writing | Part 1

1 Question

You must answer this question. Read this email from your English-speaking friend Theo and the notes you have made.

EMAIL

From	Theo
Subject	Study Group

Hey!

I hope you're doing well. I've been thinking about organising a study group for the end-of-year exams. (1)

When would be a good day for us to meet after school? (2)

We could review the subjects we find most difficult. For me, it's science! What about you? (3)

Also, do you know a quiet place where we can study? (4)

Let me know what you think and if you have any other ideas. (5)

Take care,
Theo

1. Great idea, thank you!
2. Suggest a date.
3. Tell Theo the most difficult subject for you.
4. Suggest a location.
5. Propose one idea.

visit twinkl.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Write your email to Theo using all the notes. Write your answer in about 100 words.

Disclaimer: This resource has been made for the purpose of teaching English language learners. We know that students can be learning English in many different places, in many different ways and at any age, so we try to keep these resources as general as possible.

There are many acronyms associated with English language teaching. These include (but are not limited to) ELT, TEFL, EFL, ELL, EAL and ESOL. While the term ESL may not fully represent the linguistic backgrounds of all students, it is the most widely recognised term for English language teaching globally. Therefore, we use the term 'ESL' in the names of our resources to make them easy to find but they are suitable for any student learning to speak English.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

PET

Writing Practice | Part 2

Choose one of the questions.
Write your answer in about 100 words on the answer sheet.

Question 2

You see this notice in an English language magazine.

Articles wanted!

TV SERIES

What kind of TV series do you enjoy watching?

Do you usually watch TV series alone or with friends or family? What is best?

Write an article answering these questions and we will put it in our magazine!

Write your article.

Question 3

Your English teacher has asked you to write a story.

Your story must begin with this sentence.

Mark knew it would be an amazing day when he woke up.

Write your story.

Disclaimer: This resource has been made for the purpose of teaching English language learners. We know that students can be learning English in many different places, in many different ways and at age, so we try to keep these resources as general as possible. There are many acronyms associated with English language teaching. These include (but are not limited to) ELT, TEFL, EFL, ELL, EAL and ESOL. While the term ESL may not fully represent the linguistic backgrounds of all students, it is the most widely recognised term for English language teaching globally. Therefore, we use the term 'ESL' in the names of our resources to make them easy to find but they are suitable for any student learning to speak English.

visit twinkl.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS

visit twinkl.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS