Listening Tapescript Part 4

Listen and look. There is one example.

R: What was Grandma's favourite job?

Mch: You've had many different jobs, haven't you, Grandma?

F: Yes, Jack. I was a secretary for many years but I didn't like it much.

Mch: Weren't you a nurse too?

F: That was only for a short time when I was very young.

Mch: Did you like doing that?

F: Yes, but I think I enjoyed working in the chemist's in my village most of all.

R: Can you see the tick? Now you listen and tick the box.

One. Which museum is Jack's grandma going to work in?

F: I've got a new job now, Jack. In a museum. I'm going to start today!

Mch: So where is this museum? Is it the one next to my school?

F: No, not that one.

Mch: I know! Is it that big one opposite the hospital?

F: No, it's the one in the park.

Mch: Wow! My class is going to visit that museum next month!

Two. What does Jack enjoy doing most in museums?

Mch: I enjoy visiting museums.

F: That's good. Do you like drawing the things that you can see there?

Mch: Yes, but I like finding out about different things most of all. There's always something interesting to read.

F: I agree.

Mch: I'd like to pick things up and hold them too, but you can't do that in every museum, can you?

F: No, that's right, Jack.

Three. What is the most interesting thing in the museum?

F: It's a very exciting museum. You can learn a lot about history there.

Mch: Are there any dinosaurs?

F: No. The most interesting thing in the museum is a boat that sailed all round the world 400 years ago.

Mch: Wow! What else?

F: Well, there are a lot of old gold and silver things. Some of them are 1,000 years old!

Four. What is Jack's grandma going to do in the museum?

Mch: But what are you going to do there? Are you going to work in the shop there?

F: No. I wanted to sell food to people who are visiting.

Mch: That's a nice job.

F: Yes, but they asked me to do something different ... I'm going to show children who visit the museum interesting things and explain the history to them.

Mch: That's excellent. You're very clever, Grandma!

Five. How will Jack's grandma get to work?

Mch: Are you going to take the bus to the museum every day?

F: No, it's sometimes too slow.

Mch: What about a taxi? That's very quick.

F: Yes, but it is too expensive.

Mch: So what will you do?

F: I'll take the train. That's the best way to get there.
