Dialogue/Gabriela's interview

Gabriela: Thank you, I hope to work here soon.

Tomas: Tell me about yourself.

Gabriela: I am good at computer skills and I can speak Arabic and Spanish very well. Also, I am a good team worker and I speak very clearly, I am dedicated, responsible and patient.

Gabriela: I am sorry; could you repeat the question please?

Gabriela: Hello, my name is Gabriela Torres.

Gabriela: Well...I am 25 years old. I was in the Brooklyn University and I studied publicity, marketing, and accounting. When I finished University, I worked as a sales assistant about 3 and half years.

Tomas: Of course,... Tell me about your skills and qualities.

Tomas: Wow, thank you for coming Gabriela, you are a good candidate.

Tomas: Interesting...What about your skills and qualities?

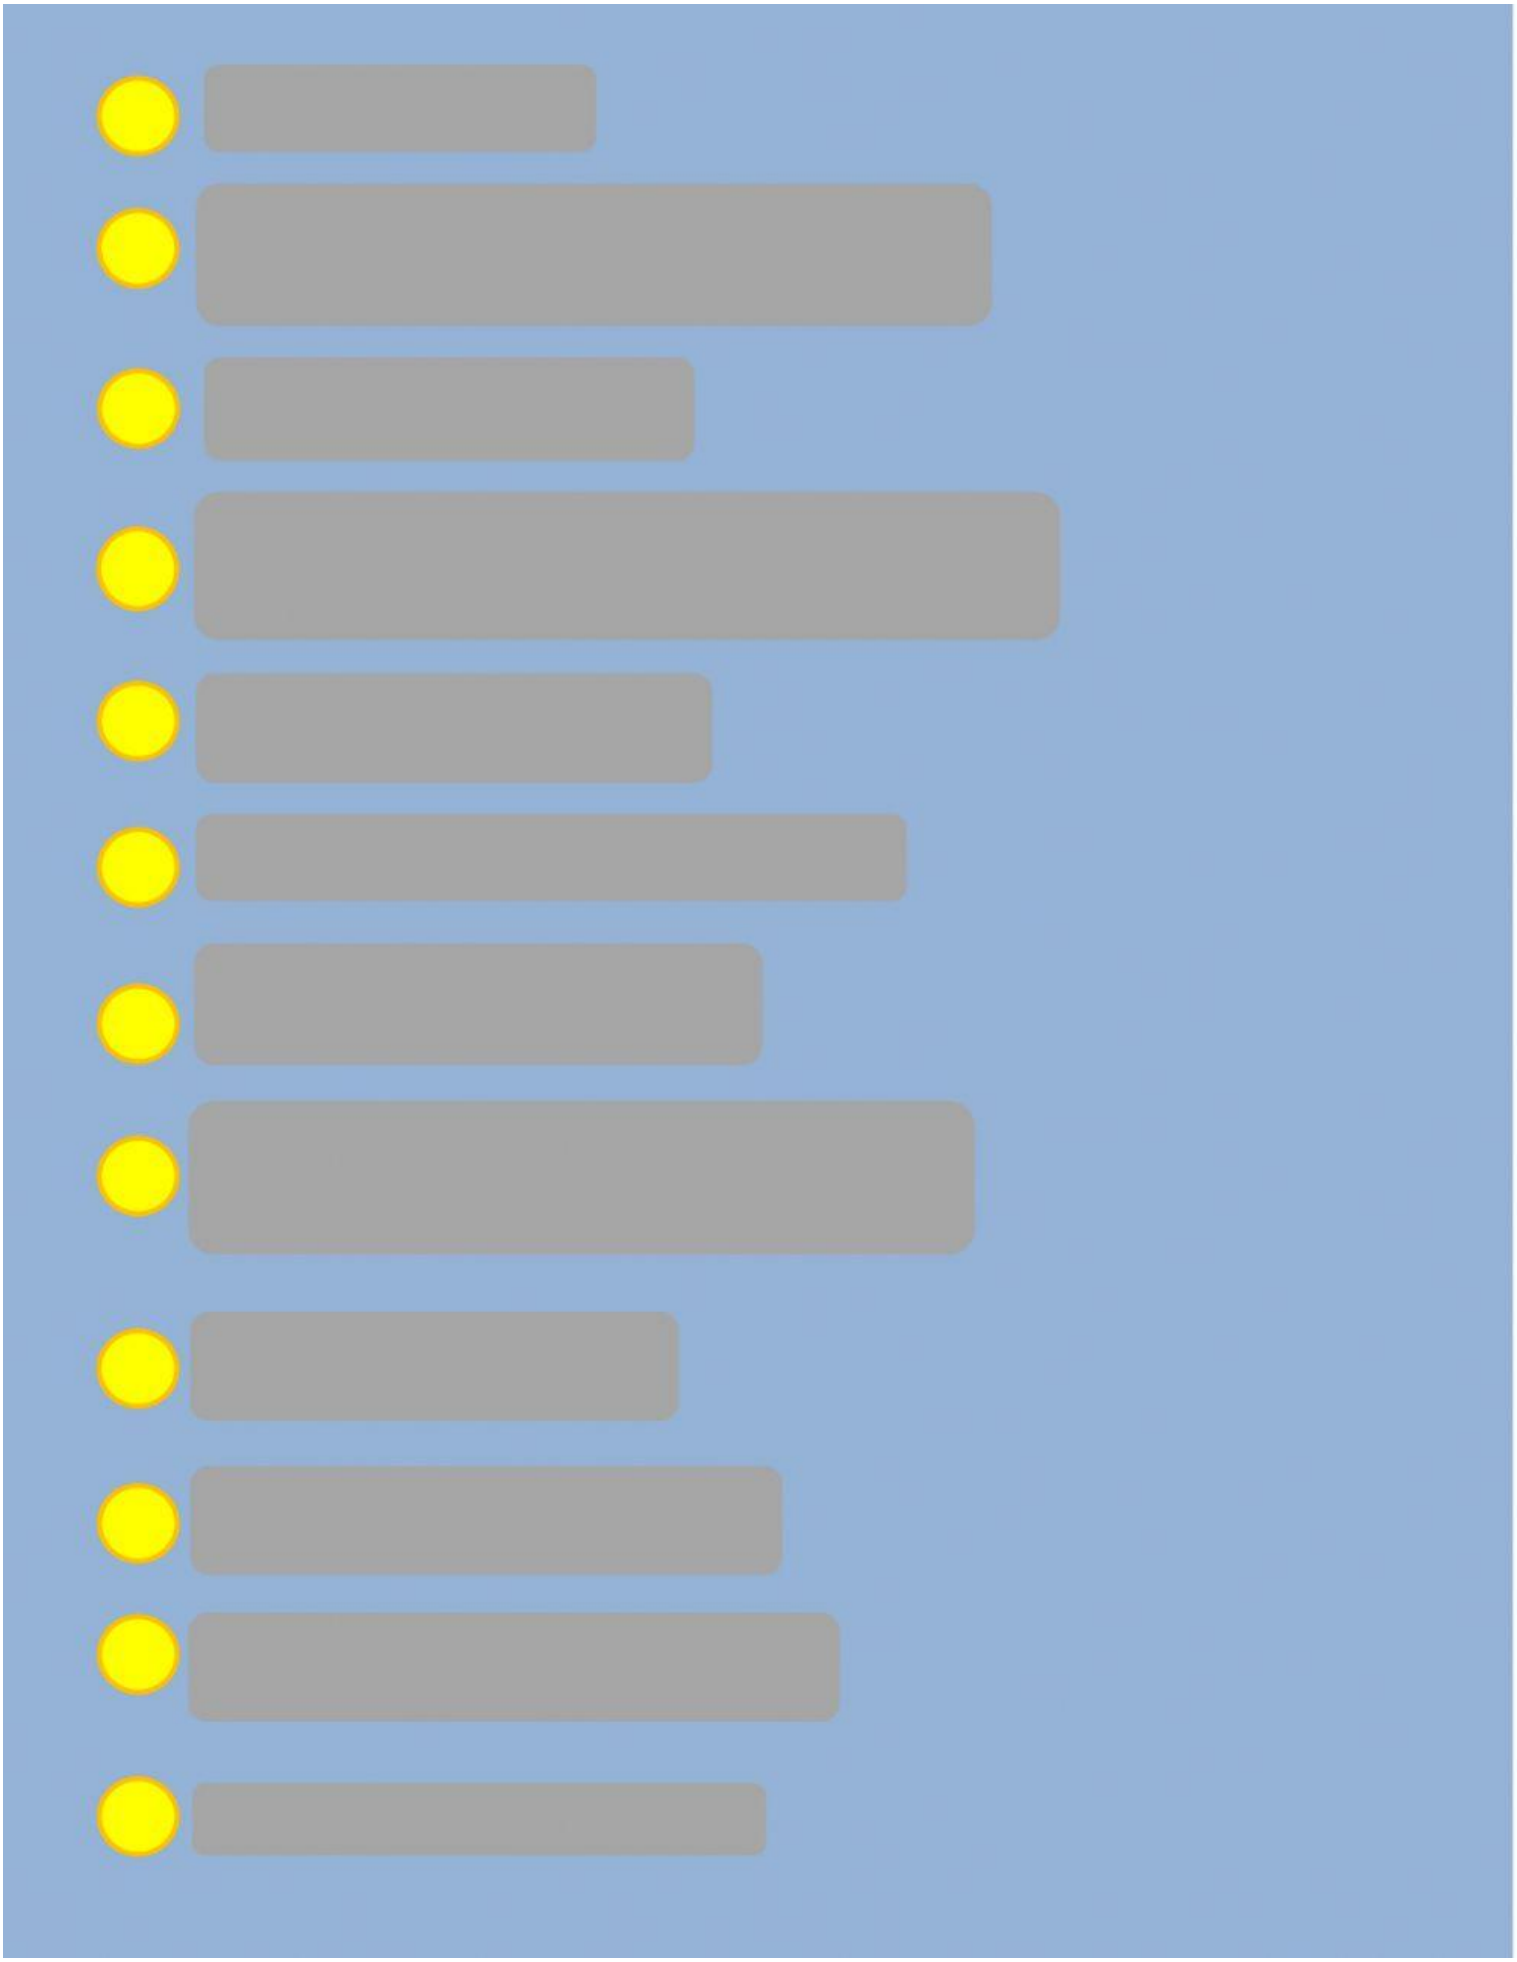
Tomas: Good morning, please sit down.

Gabriela: I am interested in this job because I like dealing with people, and my goal is to provide high-level customer service and increase business growth and revenue by maximizing sales.

Tomas: Oh really? Could you tell me something in Arabic?

Gabriela: Sure.

Tomas: Very well... Why do you want this job?

Gabriela: Let me think... "'urid 'an 'aemal huna". That means "I want to work here"


Tomas: Nice to meet you Gabriela. I am Tomas Castillo, let's start with the interview.
