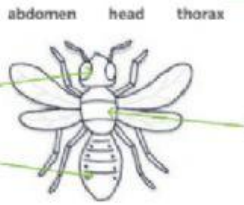
INVERTEBRATES

Animals that don't have an internal skeleton.

Arthropods

Their bodies have three parts: head, thorax and abdomen. Some arthropods have wings, some don't. Some have an external skeleton (exoskeleton), some don't.

- INSECTS (six legs)
- SPIDERS (eight legs)



Molluscs

They have a soft, muscular body.

Worms

They have a long soft body.

LIVEWORKSHEETS