Science Quiz: Traits that Help Animals Meet Their Needs (Part 1)

Drag each word and place it with the right body part.

tongue trunk jaw claws pincers beak wings

webbed feet fin flippers paw hoof legs

Match the animals with the trait that helps them move.

| | |
|---|---|
| They have wings and feathers that help them fly. | Horses, cows, sheep |
| They have hooves that help them walk long distances. | Frogs and ducks |
| They have flippers that enable them to swim. | Dolphin, whale, shark |
| They have webbed feet that help them swim. | Cats, dogs, bears, wolves |
| They have fins on their back that help them swim. | Monkeys |
| They have prehensile hands, feet and tails. | Birds |
| They have thick skin on their paws. | Seal, penguin, turtle |

Match the animals with the trait that helps them get their food.

| | |
|---|---|
| They can camouflage with their surroundings. | mouse, rat, squirrel, beaver |
| They are immune to the poison of scorpions. | octopus, chameleon |
| They have a sharp, hooked beak to tear their food. | anteater, elephant, sloth bear |
| They have sharp claws to hold and tear their food. | lions, tigers, some birds, bears |
| They have pincers to hold their food. | crabs, scorpions, and lobsters |
| They use their long snout or trunk to get food. | owls, hawks, and eagles |
| They have big teeth to eat roots and nuts. | meerkats |
| They have very powerful jaws to crush food. | frog, giraffe, & bats |
| They have a long, sticky tongue to get their food. | wolf eel, pirhana, & crocodile |

Choose the correct name of each animal.