

Name: _____

Listen and complete the story with the missing words.

badminton clothes always paddle cereals table tennis
old sometimes karate never golf clubs balckbirds tennis working

1 It's a great morning. Mr. Evans goes for a walk on his farm in the morning. Today, the blackbirds are eating his again.

Go away, birds! You always eat my plants! Shooo!

Hmm. Mr. Smith has a . The birds never eat his plants.

2 He sees Lucy. She's throwing her old paddles in the trash can. Mr. Evans has an idea.

Ooh! Can I have those, Lucy?

Yes, of course. Do you play table tennis?

No, I play table tennis.

3 Then, Mr. Evans sees Mrs. Potter. She's putting her old in the recycling bin.

RECYCLING

Hello! Do you play golf, Mrs. Potter?

Yes, I play golf on weekends. But my clubs are broken.

Perfect!

4 Mr. Evans sees his friend Archie. Archie exercises a lot.

Hey, Archie! Do you play ?

No, I don't, but I often play after work.

Do you have an old racket?

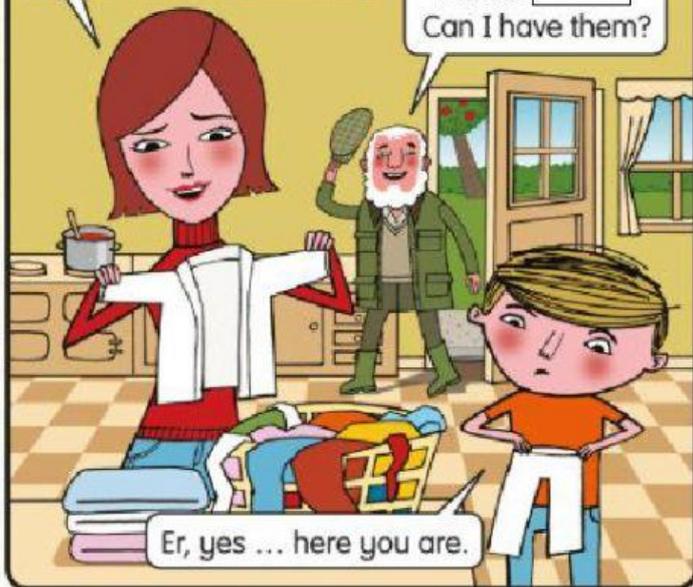

Yes, I do!

5 Billy is Mr. Evans's grandson. He's getting very tall.

These clothes are too small for you, Billy!

Karate
Can I have them?

Er, yes ... here you are.

6 Now Mr. Evans has everything he needs. He's in his barn.

PLONK!

BANG!

That's perfect!

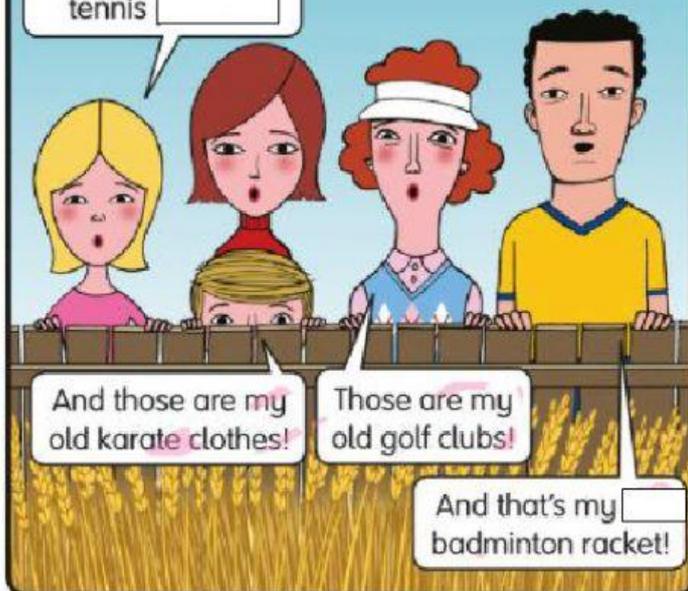

7 What's going on in Mr. Evans's field?
What's everybody looking at?

That's my old table tennis

And those are my old karate clothes!

Those are my old golf clubs!

And that's my badminton racket!

8 Mr. Evans is very happy. Today, the aren't eating his cereals!

Meet Miss Flower Pot, my new scarecrow!

