

Pages 50 and 51

Grammar*6 ★ Fill in: ...

a

an

some any

- 1 Can I have water, please? ...
- 2 There's ice cream for dessert. ...
- 3 Do you have lemon? ...
- 4 Are there eggs left? ...
- 5 Would you like apple? ...
- 6 Do you want cereal? ...
- 7 There isn't ... coffee, but there is ... tea.
- 8 We can eat strawberries after dinner. ...

7 ★ Choose the correct word. ...

1 A: There aren't much/many eggs left. ...
B: How much/many do you need? ...

5 A: There are only a few/a little cookies left. ...
B: Eat some/a few fruit. It's healthier. ...

2 A: Is there much/many pasta in the cupboard? ...
B: No, there's only a few/a little left. ...

6 A: Is there too much/too many milk in your coffee? ...
B: No, but there's too much/many sugar. ...

3 A: Do we have any/many fruit? ...
B: Not many/a lot. ...
I can buy any/some at the market. ...

7 A: I don't eat many/a lot of chocolate. ...
B: Really? I have a few/a little every day! ...

4 A: I want to bake a cake, but there isn't much/a lot sugar left. ...
B: Do you want me to get few/some more? ...

8 A: How much/many bananas are there? ...
B: Not much/many, just a few/a little. ...

8 ★ Complete the sentences with too or enough and the adjectives in parentheses. CHECK ...

- 1 The restaurant is always (crowded) on the weekend. ...
- 2 I can't drink this coffee. It's (sweet). ...
- 3 The dishes are (expensive) here. Let's go somewhere else. ...
- 4 Is the table (big) for six people to eat at? ...
- 5 I can't eat Indian food. It's (spicy). ...
- 6 Is it (warm) to sit outside today? ...

Everyday English

9 ★ Complete the dialogue with the correct phrases. ...

Is that all?

Would you like any side orders?

What about you?

Are you ready to order?

What would you like to drink?

Waiter: Good afternoon. 1) ...

Diane: Yes, we are. I'd like a cheeseburger and fries, please.

Waiter: Of course! 2) ...

Alan: Can I have the club sandwich, please?

Waiter: No problem. 3) ...

Diane: Yes, could we have a side salad, please?

Waiter: Sure. 4) ...

Diane: A cola for me, please.

Alan: And I'd like some orange juice. Thank you.

Waiter: That's a cheeseburger and fries, a club sandwich, a side salad, a cola, and an orange juice.

5) ...

Diane: Yes, that's all. Thank you.

Reading

11 ★ Read the text and mark the statements

T (true), F (false), or DS (doesn't say). ...

Roller Meals

1 There is no other restaurant like 's Baggers.

T F DS ...

2 There isn't a menu at 's Baggers restaurant.

T F DS ...

3 Customers can order as soon as they sit down.

T F DS ...

4 You can surf the Net from the touch screen.

T F DS ...

5 Customers collect their meals from the kitchen.

T F DS ...

6 The restaurant is in an amusement park.

T F DS ...

7 's Baggers serves healthy food.

T F DS ...

Don't expect a friendly smile from the waiter when you walk into 's Baggers restaurant in Nuremburg, Germany. There are no waiters in this unique and modern restaurant. Instead, customers look through the menu and order their meals on computer screens at their tables.

Here, you don't need to wait for a waiter to say, "Are you ready to order?" When you're ready, just select what you want from the screen and wait for the kitchen staff to make your meal. That's not all. You can even send emails from your touch screen, so you don't get bored while waiting. Also, a waiter doesn't carry the meal to your table when it's ready. Your dish travels down long tracks from the kitchen to your seat. The tracks resemble a roller coaster ride and make the restaurant seem like a small amusement park.

This restaurant also specializes in low-fat and low-calorie dishes. So when the food comes down, your weight doesn't go up!

12 ★★ Read again and answer the questions. ...

1 Where is 's Baggers restaurant? ...

2 How do customers order their meals? ...

3 What can you do if you get bored? ...

4 What do the tracks make the restaurant seem like? ...

Roller Meals

Don't expect a friendly smile from the waiter when you walk into 's Baggers restaurant in Nuremberg, Germany. There are no waiters in this unique and modern restaurant. Instead, customers look through the menu and order their meals on computer screens at their tables.

Here, you don't need to wait for a waiter to say, "Are you ready to order?" When you're ready, just select what you want from the screen and wait for the kitchen staff to make your meal. That's not all. You can even send emails from your touch screen, so you don't get bored while waiting. Also, a waiter doesn't carry the meal to your table when it's ready. Your dish travels down long tracks from the kitchen to your seat. The tracks resemble a roller coaster ride and make the restaurant seem like a small amusement park.

This restaurant also specializes in low-fat and low-calorie dishes. So when the food comes down, your weight doesn't go up!

Listening

- 13 ★★ Mike and Cindy are at the supermarket. Look at their shopping list. What kind of information is missing? Listen and fill in the blanks. CHECK ...

Shopping List

- two 1) ... of ...
- one 2) ... of ...
- a 3) ... of ...
- three 4) ... of ...
- a few 5) ... of cola
- some 6) ... and vegetables
- two 7) ... of ...

