

English Unit 11 Quiz 1-2 and antecedents

Directions: Choose a subject pronoun for each underlined word. Type your answer in the box or boxes. (I, You, It, She, He, They, We)

1. The girl is going to write a letter to the principal.
2. Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Smallwood are the leaders of our club.
3. This project requires a lot of work.
4. My friends and I are going to the park.
5. The happiest person was Mike.

Directions: Choose an object pronoun for each underlined word. Type your answer in the box or boxes. (Me, You, It, Her, Him, Them, Us)

6. The baseball coach told the boys to meet the bus driver at noon.
7. Melinda will have to work out this problem for Mario.
8. Can Damon ride in the car with my friend and me?
9. Please give Heather and Donald a ticket to get into the movie.
10. The drinks were brought to the party by Dan and Chris.

Directions: Read each sentence. Choose the pronoun in parentheses that best completes the sentence.

11. The doctors told their patients about (his, their) new breakthroughs.
12. They will visit friends in Colorado and stay with (them, her) two weeks.
13. My mother suggested that (I, we) could go as a family.
14. (They, We) started making our plans that afternoon.
15. (I, We) was the only one who had never been to New York City.
16. Everyone wished (me, her) well on my first trip to Europe.
17. Kim saw my two brothers and shouted to (him, them).
18. Once we were ready, (he, she) put on her jacket to leave.
19. My cousins fell twice skating, but (I, they) didn't fall at all.
20. Our teacher, Mr. Jones, saw us and said that (he, they) was impressed.