CARLINHOS BROWN was born in Candeal in Salvador, Brazil, in 1962. As a musician, he soon became a major player on the Brazilian pop scene. In the 1990s he travelled around the world as the <sup>1</sup> _____ of the musical group Timbalada. It consisted of over 100 singers and <sup>2</sup> _____, most of them young kids from Candeal. They became very famous and recorded eight <sup>3</sup> _____.

These musicians came from the Pracatum Music School that Carlinhos started in the very poor <sup>4</sup> _____ of Candeal. He wanted to do something for the kids so they would stay away from the drugs and <sup>5</sup> _____ of the slums. They learn to play <sup>6</sup> _____ samba rhythms, on plastic containers and <sup>7</sup> _____ at first, and then they go on to other instruments.

Many of the students have become famous musicians and the work started by Carlinhos has improved the <sup>8</sup> _____ of Candeal.
