

The Importance of Being Idle

I sold / sung my soul for the second time
'Cause the man don't pain / pay me
I begged/picked my landlord for some more time
He said, "Son, the bill's ready / waiting"
My best friend called / caught me the other night
He said, "Man, are you crazy?"
My girlfriend told me to get a life / wife
She said, "Boy, you lazy / crazy!"
[CHORUS:]
But I don't mind
As long as there's a bed beneath the stars that shine
I'll be _ _ _ _
If you give me a _ _ _ _ _
A man's got a _ _ _ _ _
I can't get a wife / life if my heart's not in it
I don't mind

As long as there's a bed beneath the stars that shine
I'll be _ _ _ _
If you give me a _ _ _ _ _
A man's got a _ _ _ _ _
I can't get a life / wife if my heart's not in it
I lost / love my faith in the summertime
'Cause it don't stop raining
The sky all day is as black as night / light
But I'm not complaining
I picked / begged my doctor for one more line
He said, "Son, our words fail / found me!"
It ain't no place to be killing time
I guess I'm just crazy / lazy
[CHORUS]
