11 IT'S A REALLY NICE CITY

- Describe hometowns, cities, and countries.
- Make recommendations about places to visit.

1 Complete the text with the correct words.

I visited a new neighborhood last weekend. At first, it looked very _____ and beautiful, but some areas were quite _____ and not very clean. The apartments were small and _____ , so I didn't feel very comfortable. Some restaurants were very _____ , so I couldn't afford to eat there, but others were more _____ and nice. The streets were sometimes _____ and full of people, which made the environment a bit _____.

However, there was also a park that felt very _____ and _____ , and I really enjoyed spending time there. In general, it was a _____ place, but not perfect.

2 Listen and select the correct options to complete the text.

Silver Bay is a really / too beautiful place by the ocean. The beaches are very / too clean, and the water is extremely / too clear. The hotels are too / fairly comfortable, but some of them are very / too expensive for tourists. The city center is pretty / too small, so it's easy to walk around.

At night, the restaurants are really / too crowded, so it can be difficult to find a table. The music in some places is too / very loud for older visitors. However, the atmosphere is extremely / too lively and fun. The streets are too / fairly safe, and people are too / pretty friendly. Overall, it's a great place, but sometimes it's very / too busy.

3 Drag the correct conjunction for each sentence.

however | and | but | though

1. The park is very beautiful, _____ it is also very clean.

2. The apartment is comfortable, _____ it is too small.

3. The city is very noisy. It's exciting, _____.

4. The traffic is terrible. _____ , the subway is fast and convenient.

LIVEWORKSHEETS