migrated		v.s. (versus)/ opposing, disagreeing divide		a large organized group of soldiers who are trained to fight on land peoples		100 years
victory		to separate into parts; to make something separate into parts against		more important, powerful or easy to notice than other things dominant		to move from one part of the world to another century		men and women who live in one country/region army		success in a game or a war slave		to start or create an organization, a system, etc.

monk		to make sure that somebody/something is not harmed, injured, damaged, etc.
rights		people in general, living together in communities legacy		a person who is owned by another person and is forced to work for them society		things that you can do because the law says so establish		money or property that is given to you by somebody when they die/ a situation that exists now because of events, actions, etc. that took place in the past protect		a member of a religious group of men who often live apart from other people in a monastery and who do not marry or have personal possessions

invade		before something was changed rule		to enter a country, town, etc. using military force in order to take control of it noble		to make your permanent home in a country or an area originally		to lead a country (to be the queen/king of a country) settle		belonging to a family of high social rank (aristocratic)