1 VOCABULARY: Talking about influences

B Circle the correct words and phrases to complete the paragraph.

I used to be a truck driver, transporting food and other goods from one city to another. The job paid well, but working as a truck driver had a negative [1]source / impact on my life. The problem was the fact that I was alone for days at a time. Sometimes my trips lasted over a week. [2]The source / The consequence of this was that I had trouble making and keeping friends. This [3]stemmed from / resulted in not being home long enough to spend time with other people. When I did have a couple of days to spend at home, I was so tired from driving that I just wanted to sleep and relax. On my birthday last year, I realized that I didn't have anyone to spend my day with. That experience finally [4]motivated / impacted me to change jobs. Now I deliver mail in my own city. My job change [5]has impacted / has triggered my life in positive ways. I work regular hours and get off of work at 5:00, so I have time to hang out with friends. I also have more energy than I did when I was on the road all day. Another truck driver that I know is thinking about a job change. I'm hoping that my positive experience will [6]influence / stem from him and encourage him to take that step like I did.
