Carol: What are you doing Mum?

Mother: I'm preparing some cream. I need it for this new recipe. Can you help me?

Carol: Sure! I don't have anything to do at the moment. What do we need?

Mother: A lot of ingredients, I'm afraid. We have some margarine, a few apples, plenty of bananas, a little cheese, a carton of milk and a bag of flour. Is there any sugar?

Carol: There isn't much. How much do you need?

Mother: 300 g. How about eggs? Are there any?

Carol: Not many, only half a dozen. How many do we need?

Mother: Ten. And we also need a lot of chocolate and some cherries.

Carol: There isn't any chocolate and we haven't got any cherries, either. I'll go now and get the missing ingredients from the supermarket.
