Books and films

Books and films: features

2 Choose the correct words.

1 The cast / setting are all the actors in a film.

2 The plot / hero is the story of the film or book.

3 The characters / cast are the people created by the writer.

4 A novelist / character is someone who writes novels.

5 A western and a thriller are film genres / plots.

6 The hero / cast is the main male character in a book or a film.

7 The soundtrack / setting is the music in a film.

8 Some films have unusual settings / themes, such as a rainforest or an island.

9 The theme / plot of a film or a book is the subject, such as war or love.

3 Match the definitions with the words below. There's one word you don't need.

cast	character	heroine	narrator	novelist	~~plot~~	setting	soundtrack

1 Another word for the story of a film or a book plot

2 The most important female character in a film _____

3 The music for a film _____

4 The actors and actresses who perform in a film or play _____

5 The location of the book or film _____

6 The person who tells the story in a book or film _____

7 A person who writes novels _____

Word check

5 Choose the correct words.

1 Some films have a mixture of live action and animation / cartoon.

2 I thought the shot / scene of Times Square at the beginning of the film was too short.

3 Science fiction films include lots of futuristic / historical ideas.

4 When 3D films came out they caused a sensation / sensor.

5 In this century / history we may see even more interesting changes in film technology.

6 Films are becoming more sophisticated / simple.

7 A sensor / sensation is something that reacts to light or heat.

LIVEWORKSHEETS