Read the letter. Match the parts of the letter (1-5) with the sections (a-e).

a ending
b story
c introduction
d email information
e informal beginning

Complete the email with the linkers below.

at first but then in the end later luckily suddenly

Subject: the weekend
To: Doramaggs@talnet.com
From: becky@pnet.com

2 ___ Hi Dora

3 ___ I hope you're well. I'm fine. Last weekend, I had a real adventure. I was staying at my aunt and uncle's house and my uncle has a little boat, so I went sailing with my cousins.

4 ___ We were having a great time in the boat when someone a suddenly shouted, 'Hello!'. A boy and a girl were standing on a small island and shouting. b _____ I thought they were being friendly and I shouted 'Hello,' c _____ the boy shouted 'Help!'. We sailed to the island and the boy carried the girl to the boat because her leg was red and swollen. The boy said his sister was climbing on the rocks when she fell. d _____, I had my mobile so I called my aunt and she called an ambulance.

We sailed back to the beach and the girl went to hospital. e _____, the girl was okay and f _____, her parents called to thank us.

5 ___ Write soon, love Becky xxx

Can you remember any interesting/frightening/funny story which happened with you?
This is the plan of your story which we made at the last lesson.

1. Where were you?	at my friend's house
2. Who was with you?	I was with my friend Timur
3. What were you doing?	playing computer games
4. What happened?	another friend's Mum called and said that her son got lost
5. Why was it scary?	because he went for a walk and didn't come back
6. What did you do?	went to look for him
7. What happened in the end?	we found him at the local cafe
8. How did you feel?	at first I was scared and then I was very happy

Now write your own story (like the one above) using the plans and the adverbs.