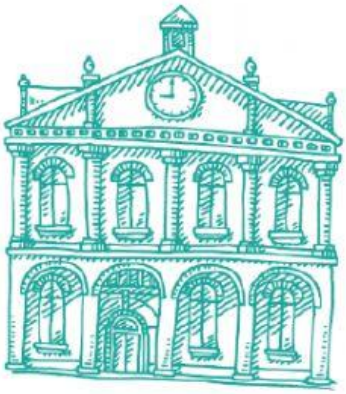
UNIT 5. SPANISH CONSTITUTION
STATUTE OF AUTONOMY

1. Complete the text.

The Constitution organised Spain into _____ communities, provinces and _____. It permits the autonomous communities to be self-_____. Each has its own name, _____, capital, flag and official languages, as well as its own set of _____ that describe how each community will make decisions. It is called the _____ of Autonomy.



2. Choose the correct options.

[ ] can have their own government called the provincial council.

[ ] are the smallest territories.

[ ] have a town council with a mayor and councillors.

[ ] are made up of municipalities.

3. Complete the text.

The autonomous communities have their own _____ to make decisions and pass _____. They are divided into three _____ just like the national institutions:

- Executive: A _____ and councillors
- _____: A parliament elected by the people
- Judicial: _____ of the community

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Classify the words in the box.

Orense	Ciudad Real	Comunidad Valenciana
Tarragona	Zamora	Cataluña	La Rioja
Cáceres	Comunidad de Madrid	Granada
Andalucía	Cantabria

Autonomous communities	Provinces

LIVEWORKSHEETS