

GRAMMAR

the passive

1 Read the statements about filming wildlife and decide if they are true (T) or false (F)?

- The wildlife is being filmed in its natural habitat. In this sentence, the focus is on the camera operators, not on the animals.
- A You should respect other people's opinions.
B Other people's opinions should be respected. Sentence B is more formal than A.
- The footage of the eagle was filmed on location in Spain.
This sentence needs 'by the camera crew' to be complete.
- I stepped on a snake and nearly got bitten.
This sentence is more likely to appear in conversation than formal writing.
- She was awarded first prize for her film on local wildlife.
You wouldn't normally use got instead of was in this sentence.
- A It is said that cats are more independent than dogs.
B Cats are said to be more independent than dogs.
Sentences A and B don't mean the same thing.

2 Complete the sentences with one missing word.

- She was really upset about dropped from the basketball team.
- We were disappointed because the film we wanted to see being shown.
- The lift is out of order. It be repaired as soon as possible.
- Keep your ticket because you might asked to show it at any time.
- Our online magazine published once a month.
- The castle was out of stone in the tenth century.
- We couldn't cross over the water because the bridge been completed.
- Factories across the region are closed due to the economic crisis.
- The theft is still under investigation and the thief not yet been found.
- Mum is working just now so she doesn't want to disturbed.

3 Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Give two answers for number 6.

- People say she's the best singer of her generation.
She
- People claim that the result of the election was unfair.
It
- The papers report that the celebrities got married in secret.
The celebrities
- Millions of people all over the world shared the online video.
The online video
- They made us wait for hours before they let us into the stadium.
We before we
- They showed the visitors the most interesting parts of the city.
They most interesting parts of the city
The visitors

4 Complete the article with a suitable form of the verbs in passive form. Use short forms where possible.

...
...
...

Dare to step into the darkness

Have you ever walked around your town after dark? Darkness ¹ always (associate) with crime.

It ² also (think) to be the time for ghosts and monsters, so why go out after midnight? Simply to get a new perspective on where you live.

Walks in the hours of darkness ³ now (offer) by a group called NightOwls.

I was nervous about trying a nightwalk, but I ⁴ (persuade) to give it a go and I'm glad I did. At 2 a.m. last Sunday, as the group ⁵ (guide) away from the streetlights, the town felt like a film set. And after my eyes had adjusted to the darkness, I felt surprisingly at home. My hearing ⁶ (allow) to take over. Car horns and mobiles ⁷ (replace) by the sounds of wildlife and the area ⁸ (light) by a million stars.

In our hi-tech world, we ⁹ so easily (get/distract) by gadgets. On a nightwalk, smartphones ¹⁰ (not have/leave) at home, but they ¹¹ (must/keep) turned off. NightOwls want walkers to ¹² (integrate) into the experience as fully as possible.