NOTES

If-conditional information questions
CONDITION (If-clause) (present tense)	RESULT (main clause) (present / future tense)
If you finish early,	what do you do next? where are you going to go? how can you get home? when should you come back?

EXERCISE D

Write questions about the main clause. Use the words in ( ). Number 1 is an example.

1. If Tom has to work tonight, what will we do? (What)
   If Tom has to work tonight, we'll take him to dinner tomorrow.

2. _____ (What)
   If he doesn't feel well today, he should wait until tomorrow to play.

3. _____ (What)
   If Carl wants a refund, he must show the clerk his sales slip.

4. _____ (Who)
   The boys will be happy if they can play soccer today.

5. _____ (When)
   The train could depart at 1500 if the workers finish repairing it.

6. _____ (Where)
   Joe should go to the dentist's office if he has a bad toothache.

7. _____ (When)
   We'll enjoy playing soccer today if it isn't raining.

8. _____ (Where)
   If his friend visits this weekend, they'll go to the beach.

LIVEWORKSHEETS