221. After the company had declared bankruptcy on Thursday, she was on a shoestring.

A. loaded
B. using little money
C. emotional
D. on a tight budget

222. During the interview, you're expected to think on your feet and answer interviewers' questions clearly and honestly.

A. stand on your feet
B. sit still
C. be slower than usual
D. react to things quickly

223. Tom always keeps his fingers on the pulse of the Covid-19 pandemic, so I asked him how many new positive cases had been recorded that day.

A. gets emotional for
B. remains an awareness of
C. keeps reading about
D. remains unaware of

224. You need to get your ducks in a row to ensure that you won't make any stupid mistakes in the writing test.

A. take action
B. be prepared
C. be unwilling to change
D. be ill-prepared

225. We need to get the show on the road if we want to get good seats at the theatre.

A. delay taking action
B. refuse to give up
C. get started
D. drive immediately

226. Writing the introduction is the most difficult part, but Joey has it down to a fine art.

A. does it quickly
B. completes it unsuccessfully
C. does it effectively
D. completes it well

227. Her new studying method has really done the trick; she recently got a 10 in the speaking test.

A. got desired results
B. become popular
C. been unsuccessful
D. remained unknown

Đăng Ký Khóa Học Online Tại Fanpage: Tài Liệu Khóa Học UniMap
LIVEWORKSHEETS