UNCLE BILL'S PRESENT

Listen to the audio. Read the story aloud. Then record your voice.

My name's Sally. Last Saturday, Bill, my favourite uncle, came to see us. He had a big square box in his car. He picked it up carefully and carried it to our garden. 'What's in the box?' we asked. He said, 'What do you think?' My brother John said, 'Some toys?' and I said, 'Some cakes?' 'No,' Bill said. 'It's not that.' We had lunch and then Bill said, 'I'd like to go shopping now!'

Bill bought lots of things in our village. He came out of the first shop with two round boxes. Then he went to the pet shop and came out with a third box. It was bigger than the first two. Bill had to carry them home. 'What's inside? It's very exciting!' I said. 'You must wait and see, Sally,' answered Bill.

In our garden, Bill said, 'Open the boxes now.' Mum opened the square one. There was a beautiful white duck inside! I opened the round ones. There was one bowl for the duck's water and another for its food. John opened the biggest box. It was a duck's house. 'Thanks, Uncle Bill,' we laughed. 'Now we can have eggs for breakfast every morning!'
