1 Where are they?

Some tourists are booking in to their hotels. Read the dialogues below and identify which hotel on page 9 of the Classbook they are staying at.

Dialogue 1

A: Good afternoon, can I help you?
B: Yes, I would like to book a single room please.
A: Certainly. How long will you be staying?
B: Two nights, please. How much will that be?
A: That will cost 16 rials including taxes.
B: That's fine, and could I hire a car for tomorrow please?
A: Of course.

Dialogue 4

A: Good morning, can I help you?
B: I want a room.
A: Certainly. Anything else, madam?
B: Yes. I want to go diving tomorrow.
A: Of course, I'll ask the dive instructor to contact you. Is that all?
B: No. I want a taxi to take me to the Khareef festival tonight.
A: Certainly, would 7 o'clock be all right?

Tourist Trouble

C.B 10- Act 2:

2 Zing's nightmare.

Mustafa has written a fictional travel story about a character called Zing. The story has got mixed up. Read the paragraphs and put them in order in your exercise book.

a Zing dreamed that the plane had landed in Italy. He got off the plane and went into the airport to meet his friend.

b While he sat on the plane, he thought about meeting his friend and doing some sightseeing. It was a long flight and he soon fell asleep.

c After he left the airport he soon got lost. He took out his Italian phrasebook and politely asked a lady for directions to his friend's house. The lady looked very confused and started shouting at him in English.

d The plane took off from Sydney and Zing felt really happy. He had spent three wonderful months touring Australia and now he was on his way to Italy, where he was going to meet a friend.

e Suddenly, Zing woke up. One of the cabin crew was tapping his shoulder and asking him if he wanted to eat something. He was relieved to find that the angry crowd had gone and he was still on the plane.

f He looked around the airport, but his friend was not there to meet him. After waiting for an hour, Zing decided to leave the airport and find his friend's house by himself.

g Soon a noisy crowd gathered around Zing and the lady. Zing felt scared and started shouting back at the crowd. The crowd moved closer and closer and they started pushing him and shaking him. Then, he felt a sharp tap on his shoulder.

The correct order of the events:
